

How AREA is used when creating an image

- Choose any 12 attached square units: this is your area.
- Color the outline of your area: this is your border.
- Use scissors to cut along your border. Do not cut out single square units!
- Flip your paper over: your area is now a blank surface to draw on.
- Take your time and draw a picture using only one color. Erase all stray marks.

